

Annual Legal CLE Seminar

The construction of the Road to Recovery has begun! The new Administration has taken critical steps to spur economic recovery for our nation. Some progress has been made and there are indications that more is on the way. Join your fellow housing and legal professionals from across the state on Thursday and Friday, December 3 and 4, 2009 at the Richmond OMNI for the Annual VAHCDO Legal Seminar (CLE credit) for the latest and most significant topics facing housing and community development agencies, their legal representatives and all attorneys.

Preliminary topics of interest include guns and weapons control in public housing, Section 8 waiting lists, procurement, Tax Credit Assistance Program (TCAP), conservation plans under the current law, latest key court decisions, legal issues related to the American Reinvestment Recovery Act (ARRA) and Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP), and many others..

Last year's attendees were awarded 5.0 credit hours by the Virginia Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Board-Virginia State Bar, and the same is expected with this year's agenda.

Join us for refreshments at the opening reception Thursday evening, 5:00-6:00 pm with dinner immediately following at 6:00 pm, including welcoming remarks and the featured key-note speaker. Registration will open at 4:30 p.m. Start your morning out Friday from 7:00-8:30 am with a complimentary full breakfast prior to the morning sessions, beginning at 8:30 am.

We look forward to seeing you all there!

Limited time to reserve room at special VAHCDO rate, hotel cut-off date is November 28th .

Virginia Association of Housing and Community Development Officials
Attention: Wanda Askew, Norfolk Redevelopment HA
201 Granby Street, Norfolk, VA 23510-1816
(757) 314-1680, Fax (757) 640-0052, waskew@nrha.us

www.vahcdo.org